Ordering a Meal in a Restaurant

You are the Customer (C), while your examiner is the Waiter (W).

W:

C:  (greet waiter and ask him for a table with a view)

W:

C:  (accept the table and ask for the menu)

W:

C:  (ask for a small bottle of sparkling water and a slice of lemon)

W:

C:  (refuse politely, say you will do it yourself)

W:

C:  (ask about the speciality of the day)

W:

C:  (say you love fish but scared of getting fish bones stuck in your throat)

W:

C:  (in that case agree and order some salad and potatoes to go along)
